

Women's Independence Scholarship Program
Charitable Adjunct Assistance Funds

Charitable Adjunct Assistance funds may be used for:

1. Expenses directly related to school, such as books;
2. Expenses related to the student's ability to attend classes and perform their educational responsibilities, such as transportation-related expenses, childcare, etc.
3. Expenses that are related to the student not becoming homeless and "survival" expenses that they are unable to meet due to economic distress arising from a domestic violence crisis.

The following is a list of approved expenditures. This list is not exhaustive and a WISP Coordinator has the ability to approve expenditures that she feels is acceptable.

1. Housing (rent, mortgage payments, security deposit)
2. Utilities (gas, electric, water, trash, cable, internet, phone, cell phone, pager)
3. Childcare Expenses
4. Health and Dental Expenses
5. Transportation (public transportation, car payments, gas, insurance, maintenance, repairs)
6. Food and Household Items (food, cleaning supplies, laundry expenses)
7. School Expenses (tuition, fees, books, school supplies, repayment of student loans, etc.)
